AFRICA FIELD DIRECTOR

January 2018

Dear Praying Friends,

A new year! A new beginning! A fresh start! One reason I like the dawn of the new year is remembering God's goodness over the past year and with faith reaching forward to all He has for us in the upcoming year!

One of the blessings from the past year was seeing God's provision for three of our churches in Kenya. A year ago, I presented the need to build three church buildings for some of the works we helped to start years ago. These construction projects are done on a cost-sharing basis with the local congregations. Thanks to some of you and a major contribution from Byron Baptist Church in Michigan, I was able to send the funds for the roof and framework. Now, each congregation will do their part to finish the building with various wall materials. They are so very grateful to have their own church building!

Not all the reports have come in yet for the year, but so far our former ministries in Kenya are reporting 805 professions of faith for 2017! Because of the severe drought conditions in some regions, there were only 96 baptisms reported, but we are rejoicing for each decision for Christ!

As mentioned in the last prayer letter, I will be leaving shortly for the countries of Sierra Leone and Liberia, located on the western coast of Africa. I would be grateful for your prayers as I travel. Civil war and disease have left these populations hungry for the Gospel – but there are so few missionaries laboring there! I will be making a thorough survey of these areas in faith that God will call and send some choice servants to labor for Him there. Will you join me in prayer for more laborers into these countries?

Until all nations hear,

Eric Bohman
