Prayer letter for the Howertons missionaries to Romania • March 2016

I Thessalonians 5:18 says, "Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it." As you know we have been in the states since May, 2016. During our longest stay (furlough) in America, God has been ministering to us and showing Himself faithful as He has done some great things. We would like to take this opportunity to share with you some of these things, so you can "Praise the Lord" with along with us.

Praises from Lugoj

We are so grateful for the partners, Dan and Anca Beltechi, who are faithfully serving the Lord at Providence Baptist Church in Lugoj. Please continue to pray for them as they have taken on many extra responsibilities Just recently we heard good news about a ladies Bible study which the church held. We are also thankful that ministries such as our kid's Bible studies are continuing to have an impact on those who attend. We also are thankful for the completion of the next phase of construction for the new church building. We are also thankful for financial provision for the continuation of our construction project. In January, God provided another $25,000 for our church building project. God has also provided a work team from the states to come and finish the next phase of the building. Please be in prayer about this team that will be coming to Romania on November 10-18. On this team we have some very qualified builders, but we are also looking for more workers to help assist in this next phase of the building project. If your church or individuals from your church would be interested incoming on this trip and assisting in this way, then please contact me at bhowerton@biblicalministries.org

Praises in our Family

God has been good to us as a family over the last few months as well, and we would love to share some of these praises with you. First, God has been working in the life of our daughter Gina. As many of you know she has been in a facility in Arkansas since September. During her stay at this facility, she has accepted Christ as her Saviour. Joyce was able to visit her in February and she was very encouraged to see how God has been changing her heart and mind. Second, the Lord has been providing for our monthly financial support as well. In fact over the last few months he has opened several promising doors in this regard. Please continue to be in prayer for this need and for the doors that he has opened on our behalf.

God has been faithful and God has been accomplishing His will for our family and ministry. We are so thankful for his provision and protection. To God be the Glory.
