SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2017

“For, lo, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith THE LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.” (Jeremiah 30:3)

The children of Israel, the Jews, were captive in Egypt, in Assyria, in Babylon, and under Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome. They were dispersed from Jerusalem in 70 A.D. and have landed on every continent on the earth. We must, however, remember that God not only promised them the land, but that they would possess the land as well. According to the verse before us, God is saying that there is a day coming that all Israel, northern and southern kingdoms will return and possess that land. Hallelujah! King Jesus is coming soon.

LATE SUMMER

September was a great month as I have had the opportunity, for a couple of weeks, to stay relatively close to home. I was privileged to present “Christ in the Passover” in a church that was just minutes away from where I live. The next week I preached on “The Seven Feasts of Israel” in a church down close to the Georgia/Tennessee state line where I am privileged to preach every other year.

The last week of the month I was in Jacksonville, Florida where I took part in a missions conference which included an International Banquet, wonderful gifts for the missionaries, great fellowship, powerful preaching, and the opportunity to present my ministry and the Everlasting Nation Ministries of International Board of Jewish Missions. It was a great week indeed.

EARLY FALL

In early October I was involved in “Missions Month” at my home church in Chattanooga. Here, I preached on the subject, “Me, You, and the Jew,” a message which challenges the local church to include Jewish missions in their missions program.

This weekend I’ll stop at a supporting church in Blountville, Tennessee on my way to Beckley, West Virginia where I’ll be involved in a missions conference at Appalachian Bible College. From there I’ll go to a church in Wilkesboro, North Carolina and then on to Ambassador Baptist College in Lattimore, North Carolina. In these colleges, I’ll spend time with the students and would ask you to pray with me that the Lord will speak to the heart of some of these students about missions, and especially about Jewish missions.

In November I will be in three new churches in Tennessee and Louisiana. Again, please pray with me that the Lord will speak to hearts from His Word, and that laborers will be sent forth into His harvest.

Because the end of this year is coming quickly, I am booking meetings for 2018. If I can help your church in any way, please give me a call. I can be reached at:

(423) 503-2384 (cell)
(423) 615-0007 (home)
(423) 876-8150 (office)

It would be a privilege for me to serve the Lord by serving you.

As always, thank you for your prayers and financial support.

Shalom Aleichem,
