

MARCH 2018 PRAYER LETTER

International Women's Day

What a privilege it was this year to work with the ladies from our church to prepare for our special International Women's Day Outreach. A trio of women came from the capital as our special music, along with another pastor's wife who gave a very clear gospel presentation. Although there was a lot of snow on the ground and most of the women had been called to work on that particular Saturday, we were thrilled to have just over 50 women attend our special meeting. Some of these women only come to church for this one meeting and have been coming now for quite a few years. Please pray that the seed that has been planted in their hearts and has been watered over and over, will grow into a true understanding and faith in Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Pray also for the many women that came this year for the first time.

Maranatha Baptist Church

Our theme for last year was unity, so building off of that Daniel has focused this year on building a healthy church. The majority of our church members are first generation Christians and have never been a part of a healthy, thriving church. Please pray for each of the members to grow in their understanding of what it means to be a church member and the responsibilities that they have to God and each other. Our hearts desire it to see Maranatha Baptist here in Hincesti, thriving and fulfilling it's purpose of evangelism and making true disciples of Christ. Please also pray with us for God to make it abundantly clear which men should be put in the position of deacon, but also for the right young man to become the assistant pastor. We are praying for a young man that is married and has some experience in church ministry, but most importantly has a deep desire to serve God alongside us here in Hincesti.
