

How Do We Reach the World?

From the very beginning of the church there is a pattern that exists: a leader finds some young men that desire to serve the Lord, invites them to follow him, and trains them to be able to go into all the world and make disciples of their own. We see this initially in the ministry of Christ: He took the twelve and trained them to reach the world via training others and the evidence of that work is found in Acts 17:6 because they “turned the world upside down!”

Enter the OGTC Camp! The end of this month we are going to be spending a full week with teenagers and one intention: to get them to surrender to full-time missions! Just like the Lord we will be inviting them to follow Him and learn to be “fishers of men.”

We desperately need your prayers. We have 150 teenagers pouring into Sand Mountain Bible Camp, and out of that group we are hoping to see more students, interns, and missionaries in places like India, China, Peru, and Tunisia. Please pray for that God would us this time to touch their hearts for ministry!

Thank you for your prayers and support

Sam, Beth, and Ruby Quinn
