July – August Update

Savior. The interest in the ladies Sunday school class has grown and last Sunday our living room was full! Please pray for Rebecca as she invests into these ladies for the next few months before we leave.

Building for the Future

Physical Fruit

These last few months we have seen some physical fruit from many years of labour in Kiunga. Pastor Kendy Lamai and the folks at Kiunga IBC have purchased the materials for the new 80'x40' church building. These pieces are now being welded together with other donated materials to make the steel frame for the building. This dream has been in Pastor Kendy's heart for many years and we are thankful that we are here to take part in seeing God accomplish great things through His people. I-beams are being fitted to make the main roof rafters. Donated pipes were transformed into solid posts for supporting the rafters.

Spiritual Fruit

Aside from the physical fruit we are seeing spiritual fruit as well. Rebecca has been involved with a ladies Bible study on Saturday mornings in the past. Recently she began teaching a ladies Sunday School class. One Sunday there were only a few young ladies present. However, one of these young ladies (Mauta) had come as a result of a house fellowship that I went to with one of my students. Rebecca was able to spend the hour giving her a detailed gospel explanation. Please pray for her to understand fully and accept Christ as her personal Another area of spiritual fruit has been in the growth of ourselves as well as the church body. It has taken effort and prayer to see what part of the body each Christian in the ministry is meant to be. We have seen different ladies and men each using their gifts in different and new ways. On August 12th the church held their first Pastor's Appreciation Day to honour Pastor Kendy for his 17 years of service here. I was thankful to help organize this day to show my appreciation as well for this man of God.

Looking Ahead

We are excited that this coming Christmas season we will spend with our families. Beginning next January we will start visiting our supporters as well as any new churches that have interest in our ministry. Please email me (florences4png@gmail.com) if you would like to schedule us in 2019.
